Description
This spacious apartment has recently undergone significant renovation and really is a must-see property, for those looking for their first purchase, investment property, or a Pied a Terre close to the seafront.
The accommodation is immaculately presented throughout, it benefits from well-proportioned rooms, a luxurious kitchen, and a bathroom with a large walk-in shower. Located on the lower ground floor of this regency building, it profits from having a share in the freehold company, its own private entrance, and ample space on the west-facing patio for alfresco dining and enjoying the evening sun.
